

Orchard Partnership Academies Staff Code of Conduct Policy

Reviewed: Autumn 2023

Mr Alex Davies

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This Code of Conduct is intended as a guide and a help to all school staff. It sets out standards of conduct which staff are expected to follow when within or representing the school. This code is not exhaustive but is written to assist staff and it is important that staff should take advice and guidance if necessary. If members of staff are in doubt about professional conduct, they are encouraged to ask the SLT.

1.2 The underlying purpose of this document is to ensure that the school provides a high quality service to its pupils and stakeholders in accordance with the school's Aims and Ethos (outlined in the prospectus) and to promote public confidence in the integrity of the school.

1.3 It takes in the requirements of the law and attempts to define the required levels of professionalism to ensure the well-being of the school, its staff, its pupils, its parents and visitors.

1.4 It has been drafted to comply with school Policies and Procedures.

1.5 Staff are requested to read this Code carefully and consider the issues which it raises.

1.6 The Executive Headteacher/Head of School should also ensure that all staff are aware of the Code's contents and are fully briefed on its implications.

1.7 Reference to this Code will be made in all contacts of employment, and copies will be given to all staff. In addition, the induction programme for all new staff will reinforce the principles of this Code.

1.8 Investigations of alleged breaches of this Code will be covered under the school's Discipline, Conduct and Grievance Policy and related codes of practice.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT

2.1 EXCLUSIVITY OF SERVICE

1. Staff members' off-duty hours are their personal concern, but they should avoid a position where duty and private interests conflict. This includes:

- Staff members making online associations/friendships with current pupils via social networking sites such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter etc (the list is not exhaustive).
- Staff members using texting/email facilities on either their mobile phone or PC/Mac to communicate with pupils.

These have been included to safeguard the safety of pupils and the safety and professional integrity of school staff.

2. The school does not seek to preclude staff unreasonably from undertaking additional employment but staff members are required to devote full time, attention and abilities to their duties during contracted working hours and to act in the best interests of the school at all times. Accordingly, staff must not, without the written consent of the Executive Headteacher/Head of School and Governors, undertake any employment or engagement which might interfere with the performance of professional duties or conflict with the interests of the school.

3. It follows that, regardless of whether a staff member is employed on a full-time or fractional contract, they are required to notify the Executive Headteacher/Head of School and Governors of any employment or engagement which they intend to undertake whilst in the employment of the school. This includes any such employment or engagement which commenced prior to the start of any contracted work with the school.

2.2 SPECIFIC ASPECTS

1. Discrimination: Staff must at all times observe the school's Equality Policy for staff and pupils and treat pupils, parents and other stakeholders in accordance with those policies.

2. Health and Safety: Staff must take care of their personal hygiene, safety and welfare, and that of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions. All staff must comply with the requirements of the school Health and Safety policy and relevant legislation and regulations, also ensuring that pupils do likewise.

3. Fire: Staff must familiarise themselves with the fire precautions, procedures and drill routines. They must regard practice fire drills or building evacuations in a positive manner, and ensure they are perceived by pupils as an essential precaution to prevent risk of injury or fatality.
5. Business Practice: Staff must maintain an impeccable standard of integrity in all their professional relationships.
6. Media: Other than on matters of publicity, only the Executive Headteacher/Head of School is authorised to speak or send any communication on behalf of the school to members of the press or broadcast media. This decision is to avoid any embarrassment or unfair pressure on staff. This authorisation may be extended by the Executive Headteacher/Head of School to other staff members.
7. Copyright: Staff shall observe copyright laws on computer software, audio-visual and printed material.
8. Use of mobile phones: School ipads ideally should be used for School Twitter Feeds. This is to safeguard members of staff. There are times when a personal device can be used – please ensure any photographs are disposed of in a timely manner.

Personal mobile phone use should be kept to a minimum during the school day. Any personal calls should be made at break and lunchtimes away from the children. Phones should also be kept on silent during lesson times unless prior permission from the Executive Headteacher/Head of School is given for individual cases and circumstances.

9. Data Protection Act: It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure the school's compliance with the Data Protection Act. Personal data must only be used to assist in the carrying out of work; it must not be given to people who have no right to see it. All staff should maintain the security of all computerised databases of information on individuals, whether they are staff, pupils or members of the general public. Staff should refer any queries to the Executive Headteacher/Head of School. Please refer to the school's Data Protection Policy.

2.3 GENERAL POINTS

1. Staff should display the highest possible standards of professional behaviour that is required in an educational establishment (see also Appendix 1).
2. Staff should seek to co-operate with their colleagues, providing support, help and guidance as required by them and their line manager, and enable effective communication throughout the school.
3. Staff should not use their position in the school for private advantage or gain.
4. Staff should avoid words and deeds that might bring the school into disrepute or might undermine colleagues in the perception of others (staff/pupils/parents/community).
5. Staff should retain professional independent objectivity and not promote dogma or political bias to others in their working activities.
6. Staff should be aware of, and should follow, school policies systems and procedures. They should normally communicate through the line management structure, and should ensure pupils do likewise.
7. Continuous Professional Development (CPD) and support shall be provided by the school and, where appropriate and agreed, will be based on the objectives of the School Development Plan (SDP). Periodically, employees will be required to attend certain training activities.
8. Staff should attend their place of work punctually in accordance with their conditions of service and at the times agreed with their line manager. Those unable to avoid being late or absent should, whenever possible, give as much notice to the Executive Headteacher/Head of School or line manager so that alternative cover arrangements may be made.

2.4 ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES

1. Teaching staff shall maintain and properly complete a register for all classes. The attendance register (SIMS) must be completed by 9.15am each day.

2. In order to ensure safeguarding both for staff and pupils, staff must obtain permission from the Executive Headteacher/Head of School:

- before taking pupils off the school premises – school trips and visit form to be completed.
- before arranging for any visiting speakers;
- before incurring any expenditure on behalf of the school.

2.5 CONFIDENTIALITY

Staff shall maintain the appropriate levels of confidentiality with respect to student and staff records and other sensitive matters. They should take care not to discuss issues of particularly sensitive matters within the school community which could cause distress to school staff, pupils or parents.

2.6 WHEN IN DOUBT, ASK!

If any member of staff is in any doubt with regard to the guidelines of this Code, and how they apply in any particular situation, then they should consult with the Executive Headteacher/Head of School. It is re-emphasised that this Code is intended to be a help and to enable fairness and equity between all staff.

APPENDIX 1

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOUR

Professional behaviour is a generic term, but within this Code of Conduct includes such aspects as:

- acting in a fair, courteous and mature manner to pupils, colleagues and other stakeholders;
- co-operating and liaising with colleagues, as appropriate, to ensure pupils receive a coherent and comprehensive educational service;
- endeavouring to assist the school achieve its corporate and strategic objectives – in particular, by adopting a positive attitude to marketing and the achievement of quality and equality;
- respect for school property;
- maintaining the image of the school through standards of dress, general courtesy, correct use of school stationery, etc.;
- taking responsibility for the behaviour and conduct of pupils in the classroom and sharing such responsibility elsewhere on the premises;
- being fit for work (ie not adversely influenced by drugs, alcohol, etc.);
- being familiar with job requirements (eg proper preparation, use of suitable methods/systems, maintenance of appropriate/required records, etc), including keeping up-to-date with developments relevant to the job.
- being familiar with communication channels and school procedures applicable to both pupils and staff;
- ensuring all assessments/exams/tests are conducted in a fair and proper (prescribed) manner, and that procedures are strictly followed with respect to confidentiality and security;
- respect for the rights and opinions of others.

This list is not exhaustive but the examples are given as a summary.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

The following are examples of behaviour which the school finds unacceptable. The list is not exhaustive and it is acknowledged that it will be necessary to exercise judgement in all cases and to be fair and reasonable in all the circumstances. Please make further reference to the school's 'Staff Discipline, Conduct and Grievance Policy'.
